Subject Chinese "National Salvation" Propaganda Travelling Group - New body formed.

Made by D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken Forwarded by C. Glanford D.I.

A new organization entitled the "Chinese 'National Salvation' Propaganda Travelling Group" (中國救亡旅行宣傳團) has come into existence with a temporary office in Room 9, Yah Tung (亞東) Hotel, 618 Canton Road (Louza District). The object of this Group is to carry out propaganda work in favour of the national salvation movement among people in inland places, including the provinces of Honan, Shantung and Hopei.

This group has been formed by eight students with the following three in charge :-

Ma Ying-chih (馬英傑), ex-student of the Tsing Hwa University, Peiping.

Wen Chi-tao (文繼涛), ex-student of the Peking University, Peiping.

Chien Chow-ping (錢舟萍), ex-student of the Fuhtan University, Kiangwan.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER 14 SEP. 1937 (CRIME BRANCH)

These people are occupying ~~the~~ a room in the above hotel temporarily.

The Group claims to have the financial support of Madame Sun Yat-sen. It is at present applying for permission from the Chinese Government and Kuomintang Authorities for registration and sanction to operate. It is expected that they will leave Shanghai and commence their work in inland places in about one week's time.

The propaganda work will be in the form of stage plays, lectures and distributing of printed matter. The Group has prepared a manifesto (copy attached), which calls the attention of the people to the Japanese aggression of China and her plan to exterminate the Chinese race and urges the populace to continue their efforts towards driving the
